Defect / Noncompliance Description

Description of the defect or noncompliance:

A capacitor in the printed circuit board of the front passenger seat weight sensor may crack and lead to an internal short circuit from the exposure to environmental humidity.

FMVSS1:

FMVSS2:

Description of the safety risk, including crash, fire, death, injury:

In the event of a crash, the front passenger frontal and knee airbags may deploy despite the presence of an occupant (infant in child seat, child, or person smaller than AF5) for whom deployment should be suppressed, increasing the risk of injury.

Description of the cause:

The defect cause was due to a natural disaster at the manufacturing plant of a tier-2 supplier, the tier-1 supplier temporarily changed the base material in the printed circuit board of the seat weight sensor, which was not sufficiently verified for its intended use. The alternative base material could allow additional strain to the printed circuit board that can lead to a capacitor cracking and an internal short circuit.

The expansion of the affected population was attributed to three distinct errors in the identification and delineation of impacted units:

1. An error by the supplier in calculating the production end date of the defective part population, resulting in an incomplete initial scope.
2. The use of inaccurate data in correlating defective parts to the corresponding vehicle population.
3. Inadequate verification processes in confirming vehicles affected by defective service parts.

Identification of any warning that can occur:

The SRS warning light may be illuminated, and the passenger airbag indicator may remain off.

Description of Remedy

Remedy Type: Repair

Consumer Advisories: Do Not Drive Park Outside

Description of remedy program:

Registered owners of all affected vehicles will be contacted by mail and asked to take their vehicle to an authorized Honda or Acura dealer. The dealer will replace the seat weight sensor with a non-defective part.

How remedy component differs from recalled component:

The remedy components have printed circuit boards built with the original, verified base material.

Identify how/when recall condition was corrected in production:

The printed circuit board base material was changed back to the original, verified base material and included on seat weight sensors installed on vehicles on and after January 7, 2022. The supplier and Honda have improved their processes in production identification, validation and traceability.
