SOA is pleased to announce additional applications to our line-up of CVT remanufactured transmissions. Supplies are available and effective immediately, retailers are required to use these remanufactured units when the transaxle requires major repair or overhaul, except in the case of a "new" and "in-stock" vehicles in which case retailers should still use the equivalent "new" transmission.

PACKAGING:

A new returnable container has been designed for this group of 580 series CVT transmissions (It is distinguishable by having a green strip on the container top). There are now two types of containers for the CVT remanufactured transmission series: The red extruded top version used for PN's 31000AH620R1, 630R1, 770R1, and 780R1, (the 690 series), and this new green stripped container which is used for this group of PN's, (The 580 series). It is important for Retailers to always make sure they are using the proper container for shipments to avoid possible transportation damage.
