

Summary:

Follow the instructions in this TST to address a customer complaint of excessive heat felt in the engine compartment in certain riding conditions.

Type:
General

TST Detail:Problem:

Customer may complain of excessive heat felt in the engine compartment in certain riding conditions.

Solution:

Install the air scoop kit.
Note that this will not reduce heat felt on the RH foot by the radiator fan.

Parts:

Description	P/N	Qty
RT Air Scoop Kit	218 900 388	1

Warranty:

The air scoop kit can be claimed under regular warranty on 2010/11/12 RT models. For units out of regular warranty, GoodWill consideration is accepted. open a Technical Support BOSSWeb Case and request assistance for this kit. Parts and labor are covered. Use the following information:

Claim type:	01 - Regular warranty or 05 - GoodWill (authorization needed)
System code:	05
Job Code:	472
Flat rate:	1.0 hr

2010-2012 RT models are not included in the 2013-10 Safety Campaign, therefore reimbursement of the BRP PAC accessories, aftermarket accessories or modifications will not be considered.

Installation Instructions:

Refer to Safety/Warranty Bulletin 2013-10 section Adding Air Intake Scoops to Top Side Panels.
Note that no other parts relating to the 2013 RT Safety Campaign 2013-10 must be installed. Installation of fuel system parts from the 2013-10 safety campaign will result in engine damage, runnability issues and fault codes.

Additional Information:

Each kit includes:
Air scoops
Hardware

Attachment:

First Published By: Dany Davey on 2015-06-13
Last Modified By: Francois Yergeau on 2015-06-26