Promotional Offer!
USA

Date: June 12, 2015

Audi of America is pleased to inform you of a onetime Promotional Offer for VAS6960 AdBlue Filling System. Audi dealers that wish to purchase an additional VAS6960 can now do so at a discounted price (see attached promotional brochure). Please note that the VAS6960 promotional pricing is only valid from June 15th through July 31, 2015!

The VAS6960 is a fast and mobile filling system used on all Audi diesel vehicles that require AdBlue. Simply move the VAS6960 to the vehicle to be refilled. Insert nozzle into the filler neck and start refilling. Optionally engage the quick-filling function, finished. The VAS6960 AdBlue Filling System automatically shuts off when refilling is completed. The unit is promptly ready to use again.
