Complaint

After turning ignition key on and first scroll through of the BC (Board Computer), all menu items are displayed. When a second scroll through is done the ambient temperature and average speed displays are missing. Only range and average consumption are displayed.

Cause

In ISTA/P "Car & Key Memory", the current consumption display is set to "not active"

Measure

In ISTA/P "Car & Key Memory" settings, set the current consumption display to "active".
