This notice applies to your vehicle:

Warranty Extension: 2007–13 MDX and 2010–12 ZDX Front and Rear Active Damper

Dear

On some 2007–13 MDX and 2010–12 ZDX vehicles located in cold areas, the front and rear active dampers may leak. While leaks on the rear active suspension are visible, the front active dampers are mounted in an inverted position and the leak is not visible on the exterior of the damper. If an excessive amount of damper oil has leaked, the active dampers may make a clunk or a bang sound when driving on rough roads or over speed bumps.

To ensure your confidence in our product, Acura is extending the warranty of the front and rear active dampers to 7 years from the original date of purchase or 100,000 miles, whichever comes first. This warranty extension provides coverage for the current owner and any subsequent owners. No action is required on your part unless you experience a problem. The warranty extension is valid except for any vehicle that has ever been declared a total loss or sold for salvage by a financial institution or insurer, or has a branded, or similar title under any state's law.

What should you do?

If there is any noise from the front or rear suspension area, contact any authorized Acura dealer for an appointment to have your vehicle inspected. If the noise is caused by one or more leaking active dampers, the dealer will repair your vehicle free of charge. Please plan to leave your vehicle at the dealer for one full day to allow them flexibility in scheduling.
