The customer is responsible for all freight charges on the returned merchandise. Special order items or non stock items are not returnable.
Shipping Inspection and Damaged Product:	All merchandise should be inspected upon arrival and carrier damage claims should be filed with the carrier immediately. We are not responsible for, nor are we in a position to make a claim after the freight carrier accepts the shipment from us. For excess stock returns, contact the Vendor directly.
Conclusion: 	Behind every Buck knife is 100 years of experience and craftsmanship. We use the very best materials and state-of-the-art technology to create knives that meet the exacting demands you would expect of a high quality knife. And we stand behind every knife we make with our 4-Ever Warranty. At Buck, you'll always find a wide range of knives to choose from. Each knife we bring to market has been thoughtfully designed and engineered. Blending the right properties into stainless steel will ensure that your knife has the right hardness and strength. Heat-treating or tempering the blade helps the knife hold its edge longer and makes it easier for you to re-sharpen the blade. It's the heart and soul of the blade in our humble opinion. And yes, we really do sweat the small stuff. We also ask a lot of questions of people who use our knives. Some of our best ideas come from the people who use our knives the most. We make knives that meet the needs of our customers. We don't follow market gimmicks. In fact, we can even make a knife just for you in our Custom Knife Shoppe.
