Introduction

The California Air Resources Board (CARB) requires all dealers provide this Proof of Correction (POC) Certificate for vehicles registered in the State of California that receive a Voluntary Emission Related Recall (VERR).

Resolution

INFORMATION ONLY

CARB Vehicle Emission Recall - POC Certificate

For those chassis identified as "CARB" on a bulletin's chassis list, fill out the POC Certificate and provide the certificate to the customer upon repair completion.

See the FAQ sheet in the attachments for common questions and answers.

Warranty

Not applicable

Parts

Source the pink paper locally. The paper must be pink. For example: "Staples model 14779 paper or similar" (see this Link). Any shade of pink is acceptable.

Procedure

1. Fill out the Vehicle Emission Recall – Proof of Correction Certificate found in the attachments.
2. Sign the certificate with an electronic signature or you can print the certificate and sign it.
3. Print the certificate on pink paper (see “Parts” above).

NOTE: The California Department of Motor Vehicles will not accept this certificate if it is not printed on pink paper.

- o Provide 1 copy of this certificate to the customer.
- o Retain 1 copy (electronic or printed) of this certificate for your records.

NOTE: If a customer has received this repair at a different service facility and contacts you because the certificate has been misplaced, you can print a duplicate certificate and mail it to the customer. Electronic copies of the certificate cannot be provided to the customer and will not be accepted by California Department of Motor Vehicles.
