A Part Claim for the return of L101SXC001 has been entered in the system for you based on your current available Prime inventory. This is in addition to the previously entered claim for L101SXC000. The returns of L101SXC000 and L101SXC001 should be made to your facing RDC.

The return is being requested for additional inspection. A supersession is being implemented for part number L101SXC002. Existing open orders and new orders will ship at the 002 level.

Please contact the PICS or your RDC admin with any changes to the Part Claim.

Thank You.
