Subject: New passenger airbag module and brackets

Please note that installation of the new passenger airbag module Part No. 89207500 requires the use of special brackets to fasten it to the dashboard.

The new component is marked with a specific label bearing the phrase "PAB-FER-F164 SP" on the packaging, as seen in Fig. 1.

- IMPORTANT -

If the passenger airbag module has to be replaced because of a Recall Campaign, the part will be supplied directly by the supplier. However, if necessary, the component can be ordered from our Spare Parts Department once a PHD has been opened with the description "SAT AUTHORIZATION", using the specific kit Code no. 70004993.

In all other cases, you must use the Code no. 89207500.
