Rear brake pads issue (P/N 4M0698451AA)

Information for the field:

Lamborghini After Sales informs all Dealers and Service Points that the rear brake pads (P/N 4M0698451AA) managed until now and also part of the initial stock are subject to an issue and need to be returned and reordered.

You can identify the parts involved by their brown packaging, while the ones (same P/N) in white packaging are ok and do not need to be returned.

The issue relates to missing clips.

Please answer the following questions in order to provide a complete outline of the situation:

1. Have you ever installed the wrong rear brake pads identifiable with their brown packaging?

2. If so, can you provide the VIN of the cars involved?

3. Do you still have wrong rear brake pads in stock?

Please proceed with returning the parts (following the Spare Parts Return policy) and with reordering the same P/N on Xeco.

Please stay reassured that the issue has been solved and no pads ordered from now on will have missing clips.

If you require any additional information please contact Lamborghini Dealer Care at spareparts.order.la@dialogservice.com.
