Product Change Notice - OneControl software changes Rev. 3.7

Dear Valued Customer:

Please be advised LCI intends to make improvements to functions on the OneControl touch panel and the mobile app.
Affected part numbers include:

- 406345
- 406347

Updates

- The home page has been updated to make the HVAC zones, lights and holding tanks selectable by touch.
- "Rainbow" mode for RGB zones has been updated to include speed settings.
- The slide-outs and awnings are now functional from their respective device panes without going in and out of each function individually (Figs. 1 and 2).

There is no change in installation or operation of the system, other than the software improvements. There is no part number change and no price change. The change will be made on a running basis, starting immediately.
