It is in the actions drop down in DL8. I believe is labeled as keyless door entry.

The New Cascadia ES & TS manual, 1.12.013 gives a real good description of the process. we learned the hard way, the DCDM went bad and if you don't have the original packages for the fobs, you can't get the programming codes. you have to buy new fobs. they recommend recording the codes in Parts Pro, Global Notes when the truck or fobs are new.

KEYLESS ENTRY KEY FOB

If I recall correctly in OWL under major components I think seen some with KEY FOB codes from the factory for on eof the FOB's.

We ran into the same issue with installing a DCDM and had to locate the codes for the FOB. We found the code in vehicle information under major components.
