

TECHNICAL TOPICS

POWERTRAIN

Check Engine MIL	17MY – Onward Range Rover, RR Sport, Discovery
Customer Voice: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>– The Check Engine MIL is illuminated.</li></ul> Technical Description: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>– DTCs are stored relating to EVAP system performance.</li></ul> Status: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>– Complete the guided flow “DMTL Leak Test” in Pathfinder for diagnosis.</li><li>– If leaks are identified in the lines as a result of chaffing, replace the component as necessary for repair.<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>– Once removed, obtain a picture of the overall component with the area of the damage highlighted and a close-up picture of the damage itself.</li></ul></li><li>– Hold the parts for return and raise an EPQR which includes the pictures taken and contact information (name, email address, phone number) of someone at the retailer who can serve as the point of contact for the shipping company to collect the original components.</li></ul>

