

AFTERMARKET GROUP

March 1, 2021

Dear [REDACTED],

Dana Aftermarket has identified a coating change on components that are part of the Axle Bearing Retainer on part 76466-X that may affect performance of certain units that were shipped to your location. I have set forth below information to identify the specific units concerned.

Dana is committed to our product performance and customer satisfaction and will replace the concerned units at no charge or shipping cost to you.

Please contact your Dana representative to arrange replacement of these parts. Please feel free to contact us at AFM_Warranty@Dana.com if you have any additional questions.

I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Scott Donnelly – Aftermarket Training & Quality Engineering Manager
