NTE: A Special Service Message is a formal communication issued by Land Rover and carries the same importance of a Technical Service Builden, An SSM is a quick method of communicating Tweed To Know information to the technical service information contained to hand force technical communications are by trained, professional technicans with the information state and course technical communications are intended for use by trained, professional technicans of conditions that may occur on some vehicles, or provides information contained to and force technical communications are intended for use by trained, professional technicans of conditions that may occur on some vehicles, or provides information that could assist in corner levelicel and diagnostic service. SSM 75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim/Side Finisher Not Conditions that may occur on some vehicles, or provides information that could assist in corner levelicel and diagnostic service. Signator and the course of the some technical service services and service. The source of the source of the source of the conditions that may occur on some vehicles, or provides information constraints of the source o	Technical Service Bulletin. An SSM is a quick method or communicating "Need To Know" information to na given topic. All information contained in Land Rover technical communications are intended for use by trained, professional technicals with the indometed by tools, and equipment required to complete the procedure correctly and safely. It informs the Technicals of the conditions that may occur on some vehicles, or provides information that could assist in correct vehicle and diagnostic service. SSM 75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim/Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing Poor Cosmetic Appearance Models : Range Rover Sport / L494 Engineer Name : Chris Davies Last Modified : 18 MAY 2021 14:50:10 Category : Accessories Symptom : General Accessories Content : Issue • VPLWR0104 (Black finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • LR049925 (Black) • LR049925 (Black) • LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please to low the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; • (Not Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (MB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge of • Usub down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. Fite : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim. Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a	Special Service Message
Correctly Fitted Causing Poor Cosmetic Appearance Models : Range Rover Sport / L494 Engineer Name : Chris Davies Last Modified : 18 MAY 2021 14:50:10 Category : Accessories Symptom : General Accessories Content : Issue: • VPLWR0104 (Black finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • UPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action : Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with Clicking noise 3. (Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim. Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a	Correctly Fitted Causing Poor Cosmetic Appearance Models : Range Rover Sport / L494 Engineer Name : Chris Davies Last Modified : 18 MAY 2021 14:50:10 Category : Accessories Symptom : General Accessories Content : Issue • VPLWR0104 (Black finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; • Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) • Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with Clicking noise • (Nkt Okk) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM.	Technical Service Bulletin. An SSM is a quick method of communicating "Need To Know" information to the technical service community. SSM's may be issued in advance of a technical bulletin or may be the only communication on a given topic. All information contained in Land Rover technical communications are intended for use by trained, professional technicians with the knowledge, tools, and equipment required to complete the procedure correctly and safely. It informs the Technicians of
Correctly Fitted Causing Poor Cosmetic Appearance Models : Range Rover Sport / L494 Engineer Name : Chris Davies Last Modified : 18 MAY 2021 14:50:10 Category : Accessories Symptom : General Accessories Content : Issue: • VPLWR0104 (Black finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • UPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action : Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with Clicking noise 3. (Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim. Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a	Correctly Fitted Causing Poor Cosmetic Appearance Models : Range Rover Sport / L494 Engineer Name : Chris Davies Last Modified : 18 MAY 2021 14:50:10 Category : Accessories Symptom : General Accessories Content : Issue • VPLWR0104 (Black finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; • Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) • Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with Clicking noise • (Nkt Okk) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM.	SSM 75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim/Side Finisher Not
Models : Range Rover Sport / L494 Engineer Name : Chris Davies Last Modified : 18 MAY 2021 14:50:10 Category : Accessories Symptom : General Accessories Content : Issue: • VPLWR0104 (Black finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • LR049926 (Black) • LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with Click noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not OK) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not OK) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. <t< td=""><td>Models : Range Rover Sport / L494 Engineer Name : Chris Davies Last Modified : 18 MAY 2021 14:50:10 Category : Accessories Symptom: General Accessories Content : Issue • VPLWR0104 (Black finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • LR049926 (Black) • LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not OK) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not OK) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge</td><td>Correctly Fitted Causing Poor Cosmetic Appearance</td></t<>	Models : Range Rover Sport / L494 Engineer Name : Chris Davies Last Modified : 18 MAY 2021 14:50:10 Category : Accessories Symptom: General Accessories Content : Issue • VPLWR0104 (Black finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • LR049926 (Black) • LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not OK) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not OK) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge	Correctly Fitted Causing Poor Cosmetic Appearance
Last Modified : 18 MAY 2021 14:50:10 Category : Accessories Symptom : General Accessories Content : Issue:	Last Modified : 18 MAY 2021 14:50:10 Category : Accessories Symptom : General Accessories Content : Issue: • VPLWR0104 (Black finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • LR049926 (Black) • LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause : Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action : Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise 3. (OK) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not OK) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM.
Category : Accessories Symptom : General Accessories Content : Issue: • VPLWR0104 (Black finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • LR049926 (Black) • LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise 3. (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM.	Category : Accessories Symptom : General Accessories Content : Issue: • VPLWR0104 (Black finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • LR049926 (Black) • LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM.	Engineer Name : Chris Davies
Symptom : General Accessories Content : Issue: • VPLWR0104 (Black finish) • VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) • LR049926 (Black) • LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with Clicking noise 3. (OK) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not OK) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM.	 Sympton : General Accessories Content : Issue: VPLWR0104 (Black finish) VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) LR049926 (Black) LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim (Not Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. 	Last Modified : 18 MAY 2021 14:50:10
 VPLWR0104 (Black finish) VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) LR049926 (Black) LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the finisher is incontact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise 3. (Ok Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. 	 VPLWR0104 (Black finish) VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) LR049926 (Black) LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the finisher is incontact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise (OK) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM.
 VPLWR0104 (Black finish) VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) LR049926 (Black) LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the finisher is not with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise 3. (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. 	 VPLWR0104 (Black finish) VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) LR049926 (Black) LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the finisher is not with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise 3. (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM.
 VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) LR049926 (Black) LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a 	 VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) LR049926 (Black) LR049927 (Silver) Customers report that accessory fit roof rail trims are not correctly fitted, causing poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim. Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a 	Content : Issue :
 poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise 3. (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a 	 poor cosmetic appearance and could lead to a rattle. Cause: Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise 3. (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a 	 VPLWR0103 (Silver finish) LR049926 (Black)
Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise 3. (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim. Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a	 Roof Rail trim clips not engaged correctly. Action: Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise 3. (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim. Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a
 Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise 3. (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim_Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a 	 Please take extra care when fitting or refitting the roof rail trims. Please follow the steps below, referring to the numbered images within the attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise 3. (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim_Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise 3. (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim_Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a 	 attachment; 1. Ensure the top edge of the finisher is inserted in the top cavity and rotated upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) 2. Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise 3. (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim 4. (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim_Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a
 upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim_Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a 	 upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the body If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim_Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a
If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a	If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic tool from the bottom edge and repeat the steps above. A Topix update is in progress to update the accessory fitting procedure, which will supersede this SSM. File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a	 upwards until the clipping edge is visible. (NB. The main clip must be above the clipping edge) Push down and inboard in a rotational movement, ensuring the top edge of the trim finisher remains in contact with the top cavity until all the clips are engaged with clicking noise (Ok) Clip(s) engaged with Click Noise along the length of the trim (Not Ok) Clip(s) NOT engaged, check the gap between trim finisher and the supersede this SSM. File: SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a	supersede this SSM. File: SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a	If the trim finisher gap is inconsistent, remove the finisher with a suitable plastic
File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a	File : SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a
INatue.put	IXalue.pui	File: SSM75414 - L494 - Roof Rail Trim Side Finisher Not Correctly Fitted Causing a