

New Information

We are immediately discontinuing Insta-Chain Snow and Ice chain options below. Insta-Chain has been acquired by OnSpot, also a supplier of snow and ice chains. OnSpot will be working to fulfill requirements of Insta-Chain tire chains currently committed in our backlog.

Our Engineering team will be working to integrate OnSpot tire chains as our factory installed solution on our product lines in the coming months. We do not have an expected availability date at this time but the review is now underway.
