

We have immediately suspended our BF Goodrich tire options for Saf-T-Liner C2, HDX and EFX. Michelin has shifted all production resources to their branded requirements and will no longer be supplying the BFGs. We will reach out to impacted dealers who have committed quotes with these tire options in order to make new selections. There are no current plans to reinstate these tire options.

Please make alternative tire selections on any valid quotes that are not already committed if those quotes are currently configured with any of the below selections.
