

Software Update

Software updates are designed to help make your vehicle better over time.

ECG-24.2.4.10

1

Enhanced Stability

- Your vehicle's software update system is designed to manage its resources behind the scenes with greater efficiency, contributing to a smoother operation and a more consistent update experience.
- We've made background improvements to your vehicle's software to enhance your overall experience.