Additional Options (RPO)	CF5 Sunroof
Condition	Some customers may comment on the sunroof opening unexpectedly without using the sunroof switch. In some cases, they may notice that the sunroof opens when the vehicle is started, certain lights turn on, or they may find it open when they return to the vehicle. Typically, it will be open to the tilt / vent position.
Cause	An issue in the overhead roof console microprocessor may cause the sunroof to open unexpectedly.

Correction:

Engineering is currently working on a design improvement.

In the meantime, completely close the sunroof and then remove the sunroof fuse F54DR in the RH I/P junction block X51R, which will disable the sunroof.

Once more information is available this PI will be updated.
