Customer states:

The Audi Store in the MMI also lists foreign-language apps under the "Apps" tab.

Workshop findings:

The behavior can be reproduced in the workshop.

Technical Background

The third-party apps offered in the Audi Application Store are not filtered by language or region. This was a conscious decision made to allow the widest possible range of apps to be offered.

This means that alongside apps such as Spotify and YouTube, customers can also find news apps from various countries, even if these apps do not offer news from the customer's region or are not localized in the MMI's system language.
