MD/MDEVO - 10.04.00 new software update

DATE: February 24, 2026

Attention Maserati Dealers,

A new software release "Jakarta 10.04.00" is now available for the MD and MDEVO/MDEVO2/MDEVO3. This update brings:

- A new user interface for the software update application.
- A cybersecurity layer that protects communication with diagnostic and update servers. Once installed, the cybersecurity layer runs in the background. The main change users will notice is how the software update client looks and behaves. To get the new update app, your diagnostic tools must complete installation of Jakarta 10.04.00 or higher.

Cybersecurity & Network Requirements

The diagnostic tools must be able to reach the URLs listed below without network blocking. Please ensure these addresses are allowed through any firewalls, proxy servers, or content-filtering systems used at your dealership. Please share the is information with your IT dept to avoid issues.

If these URLs are blocked, the diagnostic tools may fail to check for updates or connect to servers.

MDEVO / MDEVO2 / MDEVO3

- The tool must have internet access.
- The following URLs must be reachable:
 - <https://eds-jwk.maserati.com>
 - <https://eds-mdevonext.maserati.com>

MD (Maserati Diagnosi Panasonic CF-19 Toughbook)

- The tool must have internet access.
- The following URL must be reachable:

<http://tdscyb.com> (Important: this is HTTP, not HTTPS.)

Software Update Application Behavior

Automatic Startup

- The software update app starts automatically each time the diagnostic tool is turned on.
- If no new notifications or updates are found, it keeps running in the background without showing a screen.

Manual Startup

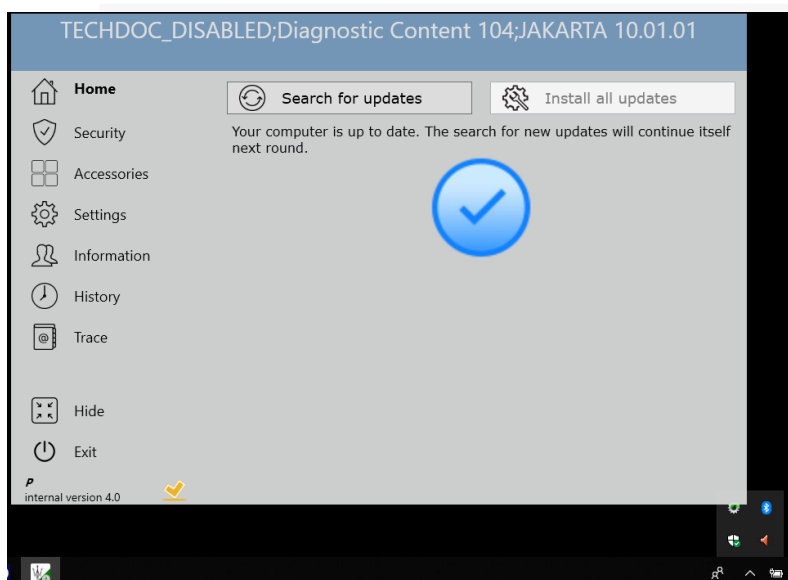

If you need to open it yourself:

1. Double-click the update desktop icon.
2. If the app is already running in the background, double-click the gear icon in the notification area to bring the interface to the front.

Update Application Interface

When it is opened, the new software update home screen appears. For more details and features, see the MDEVO Help Manual. (Available to download in the parts catalog)
